Wrap up

- Understanding social context with help of a conceptual framework:
    - Information flows
    - Energy-involving practices

- Understandings of privacy and autonomy are...
    - Both general and practice-specific
    - Revelant to both horizontal and vertical relationships (renegotiation)

- Information as a practical accomplishment
    - Different forms of information routinely accomplished as part of social practices
    - 'New' information more likely to be accomplished when energy is established as something meaningful